Human Relations Council

On February 10, 1972, the Greenville City Council passed Ordinance No. 382 establishing the Greenville Human Relations Council. The General Statutes of North Carolina, Chapter 160A, Section 492, authorize the Human Relations Council to:

Mission

The Greenville Human Relations Council seek to serve as an advocate for all people in pursuit of human and economic relationships, to promote activities, education and programs which enhance human dignity, equal opportunity, mutual respect and harmony among the many different citizens of Greenville.

Goals

- Organize and implement human relations programs dealing with the problems of human relations.
- Promote the equality of opportunity for all citizens.
- Promote understanding, respect and goodwill among all its citizens.
- Provide channels of communication among the races.
- Encourage the employment of qualified citizens without regard to race.
- Encourage the youth of our City to become better trained and qualified for gainful employment.
